

AltEn ETHANOL PLANT

AND COMMUNITY CONCERNS

Town Hall Meeting

TOPIC: AltEn ethanol plant and community concerns re: ongoing contamination, cleanup, health & environmental impacts

SAVE THE DATE: Monday, April 12, 7:00 p.m. CT

WHAT: In-Person & Zoom

MODERATED BY

Former Nebraska State Senator Al Davis

Jody Weible: local Mead resident within a mile of the AltEn plant, who has experienced health issues, and petitioned state and federal regulators to investigate AltEn pollution; also a former 24-year member of the Mead City Planning Commission.

Paula A. Dyas: lives just north of Mead, and a Senior Scientist at Merck Animal Health; solicited a sample of AltEn's soil conditioner for testing after her dogs became violently ill after consuming it.

Leesa Zalesky: lives near Wahoo, NE, and is a retired investigative journalist and author with 25 years of experience covering the agricultural industry.

WHERE

Mead Covenant Church
1540 County Rd 10, Mead, NE 68041

We are asking all in-person attendees to wear a mask and practice social distancing inside the church during the town hall event, which is open to the public

Dr. Judy Wu-Smart: Assistant Professor of Entomology, University of Nebraska; manager of UNL Bee Lab at the Eastern Nebraska Research and Extension Center near Mead, where every hive deployed since 2017 has collapsed — a total of 36 hives, each containing 40,000-60,000 bees.

Dr. John Schalles: Professor of Biology at Creighton University, who uses remote sensing and geospatial analyses to assess water quality and the health of inland and coastal waters and wetland ecosystems, and teaches courses in aquatic science, remote sensing, toxicology, and zoology.

Dave Domina: Attorney with Domina Law Group, who has represented Nebraskans, landowners, and cattlemen in matters including class action lawsuits, product liability, wrongful death and serious injury, and a wide variety of complex commercial cases.

PARTICIPATE VIA ZOOM: The Mead Town Hall will also be streamed live on Zoom, for local community members who wish to ask questions and participate in the event, and also on Facebook and YouTube so anyone who is interested may view the full program.
